Judge: Kristin Harvey

Kristen's colorful acrylic paintings on canvas are a blend of traditional southwestern subject matter with semi-abstract expression. She paints intuitively. Her work tells the story of her creative process and invites the viewer on a journey of visual discovery. She is especially inspired by the Mexican celebration culture and folk art that surrounds us here in Arizona.

Originally from Fresno, California, Kristen studied art at the Academy of Art at the University in San Francisco where she received a BFA in Illustration. After graduating she began a digital art career and illustrated books, advertisements, magazines, educational materials, and eventually video games. After a 10-year career in video game design she had the chance to design Sega of America's first website and this opportunity led to a career in user experience and website design.

Kristen has always created with traditional mediums as well as digital work. Painting is her true passion. In 2022 she left the corporate world to paint as a full-time artist. She has shown work regionally and online as well as selling art internationally throughout her career.
